

SESSION 1 RUNNING SHEET

The Ability to Sit in Silence

45–60 minutes · Allow extra time for discussion if the group is engaged

0:00Welcome & Check-in

Quick round: name + one word for how you're feeling. Brief recap of last week's challenge — did anyone try it?

5:00Read the Scenario Aloud

Read the opening scenario from Chapter 1. Let it sit in silence for 10 seconds before speaking. Ask: "What landed?"

10:00Why This Essential Matters

Summarise the "Why it matters" section in 2–3 minutes. Don't lecture — invite reactions. Key question: When was the last time you sat in silence for 5 minutes without reaching for your phone?

20:00Group Discussion

Use the discussion questions from the guide. Split into pairs for 5 minutes first (quieter voices speak more in pairs), then share as a group. Don't rush — silence is okay.

35:00This Week's Challenge

Present the "Do This This Week" challenge. Read all levels. Ask each person to commit to one level out loud. Sit in silence for 5 minutes daily. Level 2: phone-free evening. Level 3: phone-free walk.

40:00Wisdom Reflection

Read one wisdom quote from the chapter. Sit with it for 30 seconds. Ask: "What does this say to you?" Optional: connect to Scripture or tradition.

45:00Close

One-word check-out: "How are you leaving this session?" Remind: next week = Chapter 2. Close with a short prayer or moment of silence.

LEADER'S NOTE

If the discussion is rich, let it run. The running sheet is a guide, not a script. The goal is depth, not coverage. If someone shares something personal, thank them and don't rush to the next item.
